To: All Training Officers of the Agency

CHANGES IN OTR COURSES

The many changes occurring in the Agency have a reflection in the programs presented by the Office of Training. Reductions in employee ceilings and some shifts in program emphasis prompt the discontinuance of certain courses; a limited number of new courses will be developed in response to explicit requirements; other courses have been renamed to reflect the Agency's organizational changes or to convey more precisely the nature of the course. (These changes already appear in the OTR Schedule of Courses - July-December 1973).

Please make appropriate notations in course listings and descriptions in your copy of the OTR Catalog. Revisions of the Catalog will be published at a later date.
